Confession of Sin:

Gracious God,

We confess that though we lift our eyes, we so often look for help in the wrong places. We trust our own strength, our plans, and our comforts more than we trust You, the Maker of heaven and earth. As pilgrims on the way, we grow weary, anxious, and fearful, forgetting that You neither slumber nor sleep. We stumble as though our footing depends entirely on us, rather than on Your faithful keeping.

Forgive us for living as if Your care were uncertain or distant. Renew our hearts to rest in Your watchful love. Teach us again to trust You as our Keeper—over our coming and going, now and forevermore. For the sake of Jesus Christ, our faithful Savior. Amen.

Declaration of Faith: Heidelberg Catechism Q & A #1

Doxology

Sermon: Psalm 121 "The Message of the Culture and the Cross"

Song: On Jordan's Stormy Banks

Benediction

Psalm 121

¹I lift up my eyes to the hills.

From where does my help come?

²My help comes from the LORD,
who made heaven and earth.

³He will not let your foot be moved;
he who keeps you will not slumber.

⁴Behold, he who keeps Israel
will neither slumber nor sleep.

⁵The LORD is your keeper;
the LORD is your shade on your right hand.

⁶The sun shall not strike you by day,
nor the moon by night.

⁷The LORD will keep you from all evil;
he will keep your life.

⁸The LORD will keep your going out and your coming in from this time forth and forevermore.

The Message of the Culture and the Cross
Pastor Pablo Ayllon

I) The Lord is our Helper (1-2)

II) The Lord is our Keeper (3-8)
