Reflection Before the Service

“Patience says to your empty hands, “God is here.” Patience looks the worst in the face and says, “God will not leave you.”

-Zach Eswine

Today's Service

Call to Worship & Opening Prayer: Psalm 118:22-24

Song: The Church's One Foundation

Song: Come Ye Sinners

Song: I Will Glory In My Redeemer

Confession of Sin:

Gracious Father,

You have laid one foundation for Your church—Jesus Christ alone—yet we confess that we often build with pride, jealousy, and worldly wisdom. We are quick to boast in men, slow to glory in the cross, and prone to division in heart and spirit. Forgive us for acting as though the church belongs to us rather than to You.

Cleanse us from spiritual immaturity and self-exaltation. By Your Spirit, make us wise according to Your wisdom. Teach us to build carefully upon Christ, seeking faithfulness rather than applause. Purify Your temple, which we are, and make us a people who boast only in the Lord. Through Jesus Christ, our true foundation. Amen.

Declaration of Faith: Jeremiah 9:23-24

Doxology

Sermon: 1 Corinthians 3 "One Solid Foundation"

Song: Let Us Love And Sing And Wonder

Benediction

1 Corinthians 3

¹But I, brothers could not address you as spiritual people, but as people of the flesh, as infants in Christ. ²I fed you with milk, not solid food, for you were not ready for it. And even now you are not yet ready, ³for you are still of the flesh. For while there is jealousy and strife among you, are you not of the flesh and behaving only in a human way? ⁴For when one says, “I follow Paul,” and another, “I follow Apollos,” are you not being merely human? ⁵What then is Apollos? What is Paul? Servants through whom you believed, as the Lord assigned to each. ⁶I planted, Apollos watered, but God gave the growth. ⁷So neither he who plants nor he who waters is anything, but only God who gives the growth. ⁸He who plants and he who waters are one, and each will receive his wages according to his labor. ⁹For we are God's fellow workers. You are God's field, God's building.

¹⁰According to the grace of God given to me, like a skilled master builder I laid a foundation, and someone else is building upon it. Let each one take care how he builds upon it. ¹¹For no one can lay a foundation other than that which is laid, which is Jesus Christ. ¹²Now if anyone builds on the foundation with gold, silver, precious stones, wood, hay, straw—¹³each one's work will become manifest, for the Day will disclose it, because it will be revealed by fire, and the fire will test what sort of work each one has done. ¹⁴If the work that anyone has built on the foundation survives, he will receive a reward. ¹⁵If anyone's work is burned up, he will suffer loss, though he himself will be saved, but only as through fire. ¹⁶Do you not know that you are God's temple and that God's Spirit dwells in you? ¹⁷If anyone destroys God's temple, God will destroy him. For God's temple is holy, and you are that temple.

¹⁸ Let no one deceive himself. If anyone among you thinks that he is wise in this age, let him become a fool that he may become wise. ¹⁹ For the wisdom of this world is folly with God. For it is written, “He catches the wise in their craftiness,” ²⁰ and again, “The Lord knows the thoughts of the wise, that they are futile.” ²¹ So let no one boast in men. For all things are yours, ²² whether Paul or Apollos or Cephas or the world or life or death or the present or the future—all are yours, ²³ and you are Christ's, and Christ is God's.
