Colossians 1:18

The Lord's Day

November 15, 2026

The mission of Meadowview Reformed Presbyterian Church is to savor the grace of our Lord Jesus Christ, and to be servants of that grace locally and globally.

Reflection Before the Service

Unless I am born again, I cannot enter heaven. Born again? What does that mean, Lord? Did that kind of thing ever really happen to me? Was I ever cast into the pangs of a new birth? And did those pangs of new birth continue until Christ Jesus was formed in me? Are old things done away, so that all things have become new? Is the old person, the old lusts, the old way of speaking, totally abandoned? Have they been left behind? Are my principles made new? My goals? My life? Amen.

Corporate Confession of Sin:

Almighty God and heavenly Father, we poor, miserable sinners confess that from our childhood until this very hour we have sinned against your commandments by evil thoughts, words, will, and works, which we cannot count, and first of all by vast unbelief.

Therefore, we are not worthy to be called your children, nor lift our eyes up to heaven.

O God and Father, we wish that we had never provoked you to anger. In your mercy and for the sake of your glory, we ask you to receive us into your grace by the forgiveness of our sins. Amen.

Benediction

Philippians 2:14-18

14 Do all things without grumbling or disputing, 15 that you may be blameless and innocent, children of God without blemish in the midst of a crooked and twisted generation, among whom you shine as lights in the world, 16 holding fast to the word of life, so that in the day of Christ I may be proud that I did not run in vain or labor in vain.

17 Even if I am to be poured out as a drink offering upon the sacrificial offering of your faith, I am glad and rejoice with you all. 18 Likewise you also should be glad and rejoice with me.
